

Asahi Sogyo Co., Ltd.

Company Information

Business content

Asahi Sogyo offers a wide range of services related to food processing, encompassing the manufacturing and sales of food-related materials and disposable kitchen supplies, as well as OEM services. The company launched "Luncharm"—Japan's first fish-shaped soy sauce container—and remains dedicated to ensuring food safety and security.

By collaborating with factories within the group as well as partner facilities both in Japan and overseas, Asahi Sogyo manages the entire process—from planning to manufacturing—for both its own products and OEM goods. The company offers flexible support for small-lot orders of liquid seasoning OEM products and maintains a carefully curated, extensive lineup of hygiene products and food-related materials. Leveraging over 65 years of accumulated expertise, Asahi Sogyo provides optimal solutions tailored to the diverse needs of its customers.
